

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

POWERFUL OWL (Ninox strenua)

MAKING THE PARRAMATTA RIVER SWIMMABLE AGAIN BY 2025

Original illustrations by Marc Thum

Did you know?

The Powerful Owl is the only owl in Australia that hoots like in books – “whooh hoo” – rather than screeching.

Mascots of the Parramatta River

OURLIVINGRIVER.COM.AU/OUR-MASCOTS

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

BAR-TAILED GODWIT (Limosa lapponica)

MAKING THE PARRAMATTA RIVER SWIMMABLE AGAIN BY 2025

Original illustrations by Marc Thum

Did you know?

The Bar-tailed Godwit has the longest recorded non-stop bird flight on the planet, having been tracked flying over 11,000 km from Alaska to New Zealand in only 8 days.

Mascots of the Parramatta River

OURLIVINGRIVER.COM.AU/OUR-MASCOTS

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

SOUTHERN MYOTIS
(Myotis macropus)

MAKING THE PARRAMATTA RIVER SWIMMABLE AGAIN BY 2025

Original illustrations by Marc Thum

Did you know?

The Southern Myotis only weighs up to 15 grams and is also known as the Large-footed Myotis due to its disproportionately large feet, which are more than 8mm long with widely-spaced toes.

Mascots of the Parramatta River

OURLIVINGRIVER.COM.AU/OUR-MASCOTS

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

STRIPED MARSH FROG
(Limnodynastes peronii)

MAKING THE PARRAMATTA RIVER SWIMMABLE AGAIN BY 2025

Original illustrations by Marc Thum

Did you know?

The male Striped Marsh Frog's call is a loud "tock" or "whuck", resembling the sound of a tennis ball being struck.

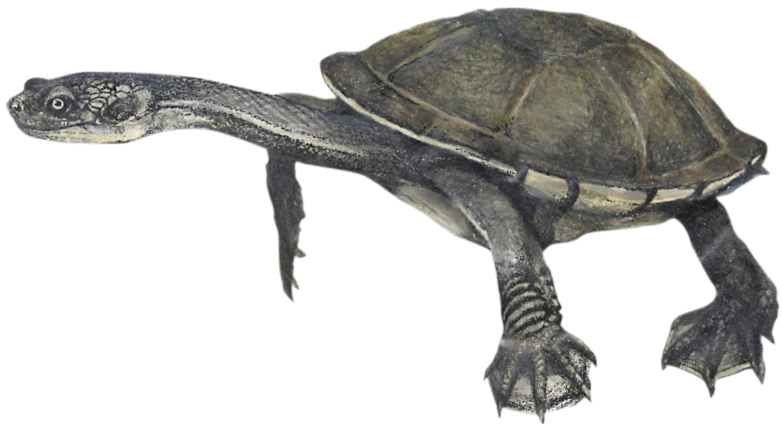

Mascots of the Parramatta River

OURLIVINGRIVER.COM.AU/OUR-MASCOTS

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

EASTERN LONG-NECKED TURTLE
(Chelodina longicollis)

ms!

MAKING THE PARRAMATTA RIVER SWIMMABLE AGAIN BY 2025

Original illustrations by Marc Thum

Did you know?

Commonly known as the “stinker”, the Eastern Long-necked Turtle omits an offensive smelling fluid from its ‘armpits’ and groin when threatened or disturbed.

Mascots of the Parramatta River

OURLIVINGRIVER.COM.AU/OUR-MASCOTS